We Believe in the Vital Potential of Girls

Founded in 2015, Design Connect Create is a nonprofit STEM program for girls in Texas. We exist because women are underrepresented in critical STEM careers. For women to lead in these roles tomorrow, girls need equitable opportunities today to explore STEM and discover their innate potential.

We believe in the enormous potential of ALL girls, but research shows they don't receive the encouragement and support needed to pursue STEM studies and careers. This is especially true for girls from Black and Latino families who are less likely to see women who look like themselves working in STEM careers.
